Hi Edmund,

I have a few questions just to make sure we are updating correctly!

1. For sku 22579, you are saying that our orders have it as a master carton of 1, but 2 units are packed in 1 box, correct?
 - a. These are the Pos that need to be updated to reflect 2 units per carton? Example, the 382 just need updated to 191 in the below first example?
 - i. 1) LOAD QTY PER CUSTOMER PO 95696535: 382 SET (191 CTNS)
 - 2) LOAD QTY PER CUSTOMER PO 95696536: 376SET (188 CTNS)
 - 3) LOAD QTY PER CUSTOMER PO 95696537: 534 SET (267 CTNS)
2. In the email subject, you have 4 additional sku numbers (22573/22574/22576/22577). Do these all come as 2 units per carton as well?
 - a. If so are there additional Pos affected?
3. For the POE container needing 1 load per PO, you are saying that each individual container needs to have just one PO# on it?
 - a. 2) LOAD QTY PER CUSTOMER PO 95696536: 376SET (188 CTNS)
 - 3) LOAD QTY PER CUSTOMER PO 95696537: 534 SET (267 CTNS)

Hi Edmund,

Hope you had a great weekend! The below 2 Pos are currently scheduled for Feb 2025 delivery dates. However, we already have Pos that are arriving at that same time for the same product in those DCs. Are we able to push the below 2 Pos from Feb to March delivery dates? This would help to break up the flow of these items and help keep them moving to stores. Please confirm. Thank you!

Hi Edmund,

With the recent news of our going into liquidation and then Gordon Brothers/Variety Wholesalers all current PO's that were issued were cancelled off if not already shipped, so we will not be picking these goods up as originally planned and they will not be re-instated.

There are a lot of questions that don't have answers yet but as Variety determines the go forward. If they would like to wait until we know more information regarding our sale to Variety, we are happy to review the product then to see if would make sense for the go-forward strategy once we know more.

Thanks!
